Red Antony is a rich light chestnut, with blaze and three white feet, five years old this summer; 15 1-2 hands high, strong back and is a strictly a walking horse; just the kind of a horse the farmers of the Blue Grass Country rode 25 years ago, and that all the Southern Country is demanding today.

We will insure his colts to go the running walk naturally, if the mares to which he is bred have any saddle blood in them.

Red Antony will make the season from Academy to Linwood by way of Elk, and return by Clover Creek; also to Huntersville: at $12.50 to insure a living foal, season due when colt is foaled. When more is traded or sold, the season becomes due.

Best care and judgment taken in all cases, but will not be responsible for any accident.
